You're so Beautiful That It's Starting to Boat Rock

Oh, Helen,

I Want your long brunette beauty
to be taught in grad school, so researchers will learn that Ocean Waves break like music in the skin and smells like a rip tide colourama.
I want grad school certificates to look like this :

Being stuck in my brain

A

Love of unfamiliar degree

A

Every inch of you

Warmth of dark hair.
